Animal Welfare

Animal welfare can be determined by an animal's capacity to avoid suffering and maintain fitness. It refers to the protection of an animal's health and well being. Can you think of any animal welfare issues?

How can we ensure that animal welfare is met?

Visit these enclosures. Discuss each enclosure and how they meet the animals' requirements. Think about, what type of animal is in the enclosure, how much space it needs and what it needs.

Orangutan Forest (25)

Squirrel Monkeys (22)

Leaf Cutting Ants (62)

Many animals are kept together in the same enclosure at Colchester Zoo.

Do you think this is acceptable? Yes No

Visit 'Kingdom of the Wild' (62).

How many different animal groups are there in the enclosure and how many of each group?
